

The Journey Workshop - March 6, 2018
 Tarrant County College, Energy Auditorium, Fort Worth, TX

- 4 = Exceeded expectations
- 3 = Met my expectations
- 2 = Somewhat met my expectations
- 1 = Did not meet my expectations

SURVEY:

Number of Attendees 68

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Date & time workshop offered was acceptable	34	9	1
The workshop's content was relevant	43	1
Presenter's knowledge of content	44	1
The workshop was engaging	44	1
Would you recommend The Journey to others	44	1

COMMENTS:

1. What was most engaging about the workshop?

- The passion of the instructor and the way he made us interact.
- I loved how he kept asking the audience to get involved. He engaged us with the activities.
- Steven was energetic and insightful. He definitely knew what he was talking about. It was also wonderful that he shared some of his personal stories.
- Loved it!
- How he related the workshop to our lives or people around us.
- I enjoyed everything about it, especially the life examples.
- You could see the presenter's passion while informing us.
- Would love next time if they could talk more about how to take the classes. (Guidebook)
- The message the speaker presented for the workshop was relevant and very relatable.
- Learning more about the "circle."
- How powerful it was.
- The relatability!
- Should be offered more often.
- It was very well done and encouraging.
- The interaction, its relatability, information, and the knowledge he presented.
- The energy, passion, and belief in what he says and does.
- The speaker. Steven LeMons is an excellent speaker.

The speaker was very passionate about the topic.
Learning that the only thing that can stop us is ourselves.
The talk about the "circle."
The components of the speech and the speaker.
The examples were relevant to my life.
It was easy to relate to.
Everything about the workshop.
How engaged and passionate the speaker was about the topic.
The presenter's enthusiasm and energy.
Incarceration stats and their correlation to a "road trip" and our life-paths.
The commentator. Steven LeMons kept everyone involved.
I really appreciate the speaker and his stories, and the way he spoke to us.
He is really inspiring and has inspired me to try harder. I feel like I can do anything now.
The "circle." It was very helpful to me.
The speaker's enthusiasm and important subjects.
Everything Mr. LeMons discussed today felt as if he knew me personally.

2. What part(s) of the content do you feel will benefit you most?

The stories of the two boys and recognizing opportunities but not taking them.
There is something in this for everyone.
The "Tale of Two Cities" was shocking.
The parts about detours and side trips.
To keep going and don't settle, you are better than you think.
The entire content benefited me. I enjoyed it very much.
The parts about figuring out how to break the "cycle." (circle)
The story about the 16 year old boy who graduated from TCU. (Carson Huey)
The exercise about the road map.
The TCC vs. TCC example.
Leaving the "circle" and gate-keepers.
The road trip exercise and the accident made it relatable to my life.
The exercise at the beginning regarding the money and the expectation of self.
Making goals and sticking to them doesn't happen overnight.
TCC vs TCC.
Learning more about the "side trips" and their effect on time and your place.
Breaking out of the "circle" in order to achieve success.
The motivation to hold on and carry it with me.
Tips on how to succeed in school.
Finding and breaking my way out of the "circle" and the people and things that hold me back.
Realizing that there will be times and opportunities that could lead me to success.
I just loved it!
To push yourself no matter what circumstance you may be in.
Getting out of the "circle" I am in and steps for getting into the successful one.
The "circle" theory.
Everything really reached out to me and really hit home.
Changing your "circle" and who you surround yourself with.

The whole seminar benefitted me. I wish I had brought my grown children because they would have gotten something out of this too.

The family part about the "circle."

Stop watching so much "reality TV" and start bettering myself.

Trying to get out of the "circle" by taking people and toxic things out of my life in order to be successful.

The "circle" benefited me most. I attended TCC seven years ago and dropped because I had a baby, so that part meant a lot to me.

What additional comments would you like to share with others who are undecided about attending The Journey?

A must attend.

Must come. Truly inspiring!

Outstanding!!

But this program and speech is for you, because no one is going to stop you in your day-to-day and tell you, "You need to keep going," or remind you that "there is a fire inside you destined for something bigger."

He will help to encourage and uplift you.

Everyone should really attend The Journey. It opens your eyes to see things that one chooses not to see and realize.

It was long, but worth it.

I would like to recommend others to take The Journey.

If you miss any other workshop, The Journey is a must to attend.

Just do it! Thank you.

You were great! Thank you so much for taking time out of your day to be here.

If you are feeling down, confused, and discouraged, this is a great event. TED talk status!

It's not an average speaking event. More of these should be provided.

It is the first step to success.

Go to the next Journey workshop. It will change your life forever.

Make time for it. You won't regret it. It is powerful and useful information.

He has tons of passion and boundless enthusiasm for what he does.

I would say, "Just go. I guarantee they'll get something out of it."

It is time worth spending. The workshop really gets you thinking about what you can do in your life.

This was a very informative session, with information EVERYONE can relate to in some way or another.

He is really motivating and gives a good outlook on life. Thank you for inviting me, Mr. Steven!

I appreciate the sincerity of the presenter and his humbleness. Thank you, so much. I needed to hear this.

This is an eye-opening and life-changing experience that should definitely be attended.

The workshop takes a lot of ideas and brings them to fruition.

I would tell them to not miss this seminar because the speaker gives you the motivation to want to succeed.

It's an amazing workshop. It will help you through college.

It's two-hours of your time, and besides the food, you will leave with one or more tools to better yourself.

If they don't know how or what to do with their lives they need to come and listen to this presentation.

It would be greatly beneficial. I initially attended the workshop for the extra credit for a class, but took away so much more.

It's worth attending. Maybe next time I can bring my brother, who isn't doing anything with his life as of now.