COMMENTS:

1. What was most engaging about the workshop?

- All was relatable.
- It was very personable and honest.
- Organizing where you are and what you want to do.
- Everything.
- The audience involvement.
- You must have a vision to reach your success.
- Mr. LeMons' enthusiasm! Amazing.
- The examples of the two young men. They both had different life experiences and different ideas.
- It was relatable, honest, and had a great deal of truth to it.
- The parts where he informs us that we are better than our self-destructive habits.
- The way Mr. LeMons spoke made me laugh and also retain information.
- How he was real about problems and how he related them to us.
- The entire thing. I was engaged throughout the entire workshop.
- Steven's ability to encourage us to interact with him during the session, and how he kept a positive synergy throughout.
- The speaker; he provided a great amount of energy and humor into the presentation.
- The speaker was filled with a great deal of charisma and passion.

The speaker's passion about making the workshop understandable to everyone.
It shows our reality and allows us time to reflect.

2. What part(s) of the content do you feel will benefit you most?

The meaning and sudden realization of knowing what the journey really is.

It connected me to me and enabled me to become myself.

The 'plan.'

The 'Circle' diagram.

Getting out of the 'Circle.'

Driving yourself to improvement and believing you can achieve without crashing.

The quotes that were in the slides.

Breaking out of the 'Circle.' The road to success and the five reasons why you crash.

Where he addresses overcoming issues that we can relate to. It gives the listener's hope.

Creating of a plan and goal.

All of it was inspiring. Tapped all parts of my life.

A planner.

The analogy of why airplanes crash and how it is related to people failing.

The Guidebook.

The example of an air crash and my life.

Breaking free of the 'Circle.'

The 'Circle' and knowing that you must make a calculated risk to break free from it.

The 'Sidetrip.'

3. What additional comments would you like to share with others who are undecided about attending The Journey?

It was extremely engaging and very informative.

Thank you, Mr. LeMons.

Glad I ended up attending.

I was about ready to give up but came in for reinforcement....I will not quit!

Great workshop! Loved every minute. Looking forward to the next one.

It was awesome! It helps you open your eyes to things and what could be holding you back from succeeding.

You will never know until you go.

If you sit up wondering if you're capable of in life and need support, come listen.

It is a great experience. It allows you to see the world in a different way. A better way.

It was engaging and it had value points that you can use throughout your life.

Go. You won't be sorry.

Do it. I did not want to come, but I did. It was fantastic!

People who come will benefit regardless of their position in life and career.

Most encouraging lessons for life!

More workshops like this should be hosted more often.

Steven, you are awesome! Thank you.

Awesome! Amen! It was a blessing. Thanks for sharing your gift.

Fantastic speaker. Wish I had, had this workshop before attending and receiving my bachelor's degree.

This was cool and very engaging, and eye-opening.
