COMMENTS:

1. What was most engaging about the workshop?

- He made me think. He made me stronger than I was 2-hours ago.
- The POOR part. How he explained the information. He made us part of it.
- His personality, and POOR.
- His analogies.
- His examples were relatable.
- There is nothing that I can say. It was the best I have ever attended.
- The realness of the workshop.
- The 'trip plan' and the TED Talk.
- Mr. LeMons' enthusiasm.
- Overall, it was great and I enjoyed it. I think everything he mentioned was an eye-opener.
- The speaker had music and jokes which also kept me engaged and entertained.
- I most definitely enjoyed this presentation. I wish I had invited my friends so it could motivate them as much as it did me.
- Should be offered more often.
- Excellent, interactive, entertaining, information, and motivational.
- It was very good. Needed to be longer.
- The purpose of finding and understanding your journey.
- Interacting with the crowd.

The layout and the way it was put into visual perspective, for me, helped.
The way he showed how making choices now affects what could happen in the future.
The talk about the 'Circle.'
Speaker was able to help the listener feel like we aren't alone, our situations are relatable.
The examples were relevant to my life.
Mr. LeMons' presentation was so engaging! It was loaded with relevant, actionable points. I really needed to hear this.
How engaged and passionate the speaker was about the topic.
Dynamic speaker. Motivating. Provided students with 'straight talk.'
The speaker, the audio visuals, and the presentation style.
The different types of activities and presentation methods.
We had to participate most of the time, and I loved answering questions. Every time he asked us to repeat something, I felt more encouraged to do better.
The obstacles, how to overcome them, what you need to do.
Thinking bigger. Developing an alternative view on working FOR Walmart.
Listening to the TED Talk.
The speaker made us interact.

2. What part(s) of the content do you feel will benefit you most?

The part where Mr. LeMons explained how money works, and how the 'Circle' works.
That I am the pilot of my life and it is my responsibility. How my choices impact me.
The need to leave the 'Circle' in order to become successful.
The 'Side trip.'
The meaning of POOR and the map exercise.
The 'Sidetrip' topic. Things happen in life. You can't just get straight from Ft. Worth to New York.
I feel like everything I learn can benefit me throughout life.
The 'Remember Card.'
The way I will look back at how the physical does not define who I am.
The TCC vs. TCC example.
Sometimes to get to success, we have to let people go....The Circle, POOR, TCC vs. TCC, and Sidetrips.
To think bigger, take a step, avoid becoming POOR.
Ideas that inspire students.
Planning your route and moving outside the 'Circle.'
Having and accountability partner.

What additional comments would you like to share with others who are undecided about attending The Journey?

It will encourage and uplift you.
It is really helpful. I would strongly recommend this presentation for those who are considering leaving school.
It's worth the time to know even if you don't want to go.
It was amazing.
Try it before judging it.
If you need any motivation with school or life, this would be the workshop for you.
It's a 'must' if you're on the journey to success!

It was very enlightening. Steven is awesome!

You have nothing to lose and everything to gain by attending.

I appreciate so very much the speaker. I am so grateful to have had the opportunity to hear this today. It makes me feel a lot better about school and life.

I hope this presentation is around every semester.

Best decision of personal time. Well spent time for the day. Great job! Let's do more.

I went for the extra credit and left with a new passion for life.

It's not an average speaking event. More of these should be provided.

This is a powerful program that will open your mind up to so much.

Everyone should attend at least one. See if it doesn't set you through to a different path.

Very beneficial. Great!

It's life-changing, and will definitely connect with you.

Should consider this as "the workshop" for all first-year students. This would help map out and define their journey.

It's worth it. Best lecture I have attended in a long time.

Do not have any preconceived notions about the content. It stands on its own.

It helps to motivate you. If you feel lost in college, I recommend this because it helps you find yourself. It helps you find your path, not just in college, but in life.

It will both encourage and lift you.

I attended The Journey workshop. I really enjoyed it and was glad that I was able to make it. Mr. Steven was great at keeping my attention and spoke facts on things that get in your way while on your journey to success. All those negative thoughts and people that who hold you back from succeeding, trying to keep you down. And knowing that my future and career is worth the fight. I learned so much from this workshop that I was telling my sister that I will not let anything get in my way from here on out. Yes, I might stumble and fall, but I am determined to keep moving forward. I sometimes get caught up in the time it takes me to finish things but I realized its not when I finish, but how I finish.
